

Yoga Girl

Lyrics by Fog and Smog feat. DJDave & Barney Kook
Music by David Wittman

Chorus:

Hey Yoga Girl
I just wanna know your world
When you do your chattaranga do your toes curl?
Hey Yoga Girl

1st Verse:

Yo, what s up little yoga girl, what s going on?
I see you with your little mat, wearin your Toms
My name is Dave from that Whole Foods song,
You wanna meditate with me? Im like ummmmmmm
Well anyway I guess you better be going,
The last thing I wanna do is stop your vinyasa from flowing
You need some mat space, go on, be about it
(it s just that vinny s class gets so damn crowded)
I know, that s what I heard, it gets pretty tight, what s up for later though, you wanna try to grab a bite?
We could hit up Rawvolution or the Urth Caffe,
Have a vegan cookie and talk about your day
Or we could take a walk down by the ocean,
I heard those hip openers release a lot of emotion,
It s all good though, you know, like either way
You feel like going with me???
(Nah, Am-a-stay)

Chorus:

(same as before)

2nd Verse:

Hey, you seem like a nice enough guy, but just not MY scene,
I think your 3rd Eye, could maybe use some Visine

Your breathing sounds just a little heavy cool guy,
You need to come to class, and learn some ujjayi.
I know you see me every single day like ground hog,
And I appreciate it but I m not down, dog.
I m gonna grab a coconut water, and be on my way.
I wish you peace and blessings, Namaste.

Chorus:
(same as before)

3rd Verse:

Lady Yoga I sure would LOVE to get to know ya,
I got a couple next level poses I could show ya.
My first choice, rub lotion on my stiff joints,
It s thoughts of you that keep my Manduka mat moist
Your aura s glowin your tarea steady flowin,
I signed you up for my newsletter without you knowin
I wanna fly your whole posse to Varanasi
Or we could go to goa, and sip some mango lassi
Cuz I love it when you call me big Ba Ba
I wanna explore your bodhisattva, unblock my chakras
You ve got my 4th level ex-posed
When you fold those lulu lemons in a bow pose,
You re like a MODEL with that metal water bottle always with you,
I wanna be SLEEPING Vishnu
Straight up

Chorus:
(same as before)
